In order to properly supervise and administer the eight (8) loran stations in this section, a visit by the section commander is necessary at least once each quarters. Since the units are spread over a distance of about fifteen hundred (1500) miles, and it is not possible to proceed directly from one to another, a minimum of six (6) weeks is required. Therefore, two (2) officers are required to ensure uninterrupted flow of work the section office. One of the officers assigned should be trained in electronics. The quantity of paper work in the section office exceeds that on any vessel, hence a YN is recommended in lieu of SK.²
