Was on CGC Buttonwood for WESTPAC 1960. Went to Anguar with an M&R crew and built water tanks. Had to anchor off and run small boat in w supplies. Worked around the clock to beat a typhoon that was on the way but we got it done. Was an interesting island.

My Uncle BMC Garland Fulcher served there early 60's. He retired in 77 as CWO4 BOSN. He passed away a couple of years ago. I tried to get stationed there but was offered Port Clarence, St Paul or Attu.

Looking for guys on Angaur 71-72. I saw an old post from Westy 'sparky' Lord. Would like to hear from him and anyone else who was on the island during that time. I left on one of the first Air Force log flights after Guam Coast Guard was shut down.

I did not serve on Angaur but did visit there on Kukui in 1953. Just wanted to say I love this new format, Fred. It eliminates a gold mine for scammers. Bob Burge, QMCM, Ret.
