Been there, done that, got pictures to prove it. June '66 - June '68, Thank You Coast Guard for sending me to Italy for some of the best years of my life. Fantastic vacation. (Except for having George 'The Dink' for our C.O.) Was discharged in Naples, then spent another two and a half years traveling/working in Europe, mostly in Germany.

Hello , Rick Glover, I was the SS1 when you were the COCO in 82,83. I had the Kawasaki 1000. I recentlty visited Italy 20 years later with my family. They loved it. We tried to get down to Sellia but ran out of time. Italy was my best tour of my 24 years. Do you still live there with all your cars?

On 07/29/09 Richard Glover said:
Matt, where are you also?

On 07/29/09 Richard Glover said:
Terri, will tell Gary Westling you don't remember him either since we talk at least weekly. Where are you now?

Nice change since I was here last. Served 80-82 and 83-85 as ET3-ET2. Retired in 2006 as ETCS. The people were great, community and food were great. Too bad it's gone to ruins. I miss my pink Lancia!

I was the XO under Perry Campbell and Gary Westling. MaryBeth and Jo - Sorry to hear about Craig, He was one of the best sailors I had a chance to work with. Maria - You mother was one fine lady and could set a table with the finest food and wine. I remember her fondly. Cioa
